Rowens B, and King Street, finished are and second. Howard S., an outsider, was third.

The feature of the day was the win of Major Gook, who made the six furiouse in 1.3 list, from a standing start, which equals the coast record. Three favorites, three second and one third choice captured first place. The weather was line and the track lightning fast. Attandance large.

nation's choice aroused great cuthinessen.
Stephen Jewett, General Frank S. Streeter, Hon. Charles T. Means and Colonel James A. Wood were elected delegates at large to the national convention by acclaimation.
The following resolution was adopted:
We recognize as the most conspicuous to candidates New England's noble and illustrious son, Hon. Thomas B. Heed of Maine, and that pure, able stateman and champion of protection, Hon. William McKinley of Ohio. We Hampshire to any naminee who worthly represente the party, but we profer one of these because either is in bimself a platform.

It increased to a howly of deflance and rage. Hundreds of them tried to tear open the wire work of the barriers. In a moment more it would have given away had not the keepers rished no and down outside pounding the protruding lingers. Dr. Senner, early in the day, realized the gravity of the situation. He telegraphed to Washington that he mast have more help. The roply was haverable, and twenty more men will be at work tomorrow. It is also said on authority that the commissioner requested General Mies to hold a small detachment of troops in readiness. Just when all scenned peace, the Arizona, the steamer which takes the immigrants from Ellis bland to the hattery, steamed in. As the released immigrants from Ellis bland to the hattery, steamed in. As the released immigrants ran to hard her, some of them shouted to the throng of "detained." In a moment all was excitament, and a fierce rush was made, saving blays were atruck at the officials, and more than one kuife was afraym. BULUWAYO'S DEFENSE

PREPARED SU FAR AS MEANS AT HAND WILL PERMIT.

Lack of Arms and Ammunition t Supply the Settlers Who Are Gathering.

CAPE Town, March 31,-Additional received here from Buluwaye show that the work of putting that town in a state of defense has been com-pleted, so far as the means at hand permit. But there is a lack of arms and ammunition there with which to supply the many settlers who have gathered there from outlying districts since the uprising commenced. These men, in many cases, have rides, but they are of all kinds and makes, and the stock of ammunition procurable for them is small, and consequently it has been found desirable to replace these weapons as far as possible with the Martin-Heary rides, served out to the police, stu., the stock of ammunition for the latter being fairly adequate. The arthorities here are now feeding the effect of the policy of weakening the defenses of different parts of firtleh South Africa in order to make the lanemaking display in the Transvaal. Had matters at Johannesburg turned out as the manipulators of the expedition and uprising contemplated, things would have assumed a different aspect. But certain persons here and elsewhere are now in the position of hunters cought in the flown traps, with additional mortification of the knowledge that the Honer hard by the solezares made in the mines, etc., of many thousands of rides, bayonets, revolvers and Maxing gons, completely turned the tables un the British Until arms and ammunition arrive ammunition there with which to supply tion of the knowledge that the Boars thave by the solzares made in the mines, etc., of many thousands of rilles, bayones, revolvers and Maxim gons, completely turned the tables un the British. Until arms and amunation arrive from England, the latter are almost helpless, and a combined uprising upon the part of the Beers and natives who could be bribed into healtily, night be very diesstrons. The Boers now have weepons with which to arm a powerful auxiliary, for they are awars of the predictament in which the British find themeelves. Offinance operations against the Matabeles are nearly at a standelfil, communication south of Bhilways is practically out off, parlies of settlers, who left their clearings at the first sign of alarm, are still unrelated before the second of these, therefore, are more than likely to fail victims to the them. Some of these, therefore, are more than likely to full victims to the Matabeles. Later sivices received from Buluwayo state the Matabeles nave been defeated in several small skirmlishes in various parts of the country, and that it is ex-pected the settlers who have lagered out will shortly be relieved.

FINANCIAL DEBATE.

Hoke Smith and Ex-Speaker Crisp

Talk to Georgians,
Augusta, Ga., March Sl.—No political event has so stirred the city of Augusts and its surrounding territory as he financial dehate between Secretary loke Smith for "sound money," and Hoke Smith for "seeand money," and ex-Speaker Charles F. CLEVELAND AND HIS PARTY.

Last Saturday a Democratic conven-tion was held in the county of Aladison, in the state of Missouri. The conven-tion adopted the following resolution without a dissenting vote:

without a dissenting resonation without a dissenting vote:

Resolved, That we congrainate our weighty chief executive, Hon. Grover Cleveland, upon his easy acquired reputation as a encreaseful dack hunter, and that we greatly regard in mayaring war upon the flocks of threatoning and dangerous mailand, sprig, test and canabacka, and less time to co-operating with foreign money-landers for increasing the bonded indebtudeness of an already overburdened people by additional issues of interest-bearing bonds payable only in gold.

There is a Democratic endorsement of a Democratic President, with a vengaance. Resolutions favoring the free coinage of silver were also adopted by the same convention, as they were, on the same day, by Democratic county conventions in Bollinger, Marion, Cange and Ray counties. Grover Cleveland has led his party into a mare from which it will find extrication inpossible to the approaching campaign.

in the approaching campaign.

It is a strange spectacle which the people have witnessed during the administration of Mr. Cleveland. Never has a party been so hopelessly wrecked rief a time. When the present in so brief a time. When the presidential chair incumbefit took the presidential chair in March, 1803, he had been sent there by what appeared to be an overwhelm-ingrevalsion of popular feeling from the Republican party. The nation was at his back and prepared to indorse his every what and reasonable act. The house ing revulsion of popular feeling from the Republican party. The nation was at his back and propared to indores his every right and reasonable act. The house of representatives was wholly with him, and the senate was so only in a less degree. Never did the prospect seem faire for a President or the party of his political faith.

See how great a change less than two brief years made. The senate of the 33d congress, which began with Mr. Cleveland's administration, numbered 12 Democrate and 39 Republicane among the members. The fool woman recently has made herself conspicuous in Visulia. The fool woman recently has made herself conspicuous in Visulia. The fool woman recently has made herself conspicuous in Visulia. The fool woman recently has made herself conspicuous in Visulia. The fool woman is this light woman in this light woman in this light.

44 Democrate and 39 Republicans among members. The senate of the 44th members. The senate of the 44th igress has 40 Democrats and 42 Re-dicans. The Democrats have lost four publicans, and the Populists have gained senators and the Populists have gained three. But the senate responds slowly to popular impulses. It is to the hone representatives that we must look in of representatives that we must look in order to appreciate fully what less than than then two spears (a little more than a year and a half) of Clevelandiem did. In the 43d house were 21d Democrats and 125 Republicans. In the 44th house were 104 Democrats and 244 Republicans. The thouse were 104 Democrats and 244 Republicans. were 104 Democrats and 244 Regulo-licans. The Democrats lost 112 mem-bers, more than one-half of their pre-vious number, and the Republicans gained 119 mainhers, simost doubling their number.

No ench revulsion of feeling as this takes place without an evident cause, so that cause need not be hard to find. the present instance the disaffection disruption and repeated defeats of the Democratic party must be laid directly at the feet of President Cleveland. He is responsible for the tremendous downfall of his party, for come what would of the free trade regime, his masterly capacity for doing the wrong thing at all times has produced its inevitable result. He began his administration with the Hawaiian fiazco, but that was a matter of comparatively small moment, and the people finally would have overlooked it. He followed this folly with the defiance of the Chinese-exclusion law, but only the people of this coast were directly and seriously affected by the violation of the law, and so this, too, would have been overlooked. Then he called a special session of congress. He had been overlooked in the called a special session of congress. He had been elected on a tariff reform platform, and it would have been reseemable to presume that he intended something to be added to tariff tinkering. He had nothing of the cort in view. With the sild of a secretary of the treasury whose soul, with bhis own, constituted two souls with but a single-standard thought, he began the process of jewing down the price of silver, ruthlessly breaking the law in order so to do. His demand for financial.

Rate the action prescher is alleged remark was chinty action process. In the first place, there has notice. In the latery hard to the very mark made to the present the remark made by Mr. Johnson." His remark was of the thirt in the remark made by Mr. Johnson." His remark was of the chint was of the chint when he rived that the meaning could not be missing a difference of opinion concerning when the solidation of the law, and so this, too, would have been researched to presume that he intended something to be added to tariff tinkering. He had nothing the process of jewing down the price of the difference of opinion concerning what concerns the process of jewing down the price of the chint was a subject of the chint was a concerning the chint was a concerning the chint was a concern disruption and repeated deleats of the silver, ruthlessly breaking the law in or der so to do. His demand for financial legislation on a monometalic line was a leature of this time, se was his prophecy of hard times, with which he announced of hard times, with which he an that he did not intend to interfere. Then came repeated bond issues, with a few men to make the princely commissions which the people are to pay.

have combined to produce disaffec not only in the Democratic party but among the masses of people as well. Without such causes such resolution Without such causes such resolutions as the foregoing would be an impossibility. And all of the causes combine in the portly person of Grover Cleveland, He has insured the success of the Republican party, but the country has been compelled to pay dearly, even for that desirable culmination.

REPRESENT PARTY SENTIMENT

REPRESENT PARTY SERTIMENT

Four years ago the writer was one of the members of the committee on platform of the Inapublican state convention who made a square fight for a declaration in favor of the free coinage of silver. We were out voted then, but two years ago we had the eat-faction of seeing our sontinents fully indorsed. The advanced position of two years ago should be maintained by the party at its next convention. To let the world knext that California is in layor of binetalities without an if will belot the cause.—State Rosa Republican.

The Santa Rosa contemporary talks some. What earthly excuse could California in the convention of the cause.—State Rosa Republican.

The Santa Rosa contemporary talks sense. What earthly occuss could California Republicans give for taking a backward step on this question? Conditions which are the basis of the demand for a return to the double standard have not the sand since the last sense. and have not changed since the last convention was held, nor has public sentivention was held, nor has public sentiment in the state changed on this question. A very large majority of the party is unreservedly in favor of silver coinage, and the duty of the convention is to represent that centiment, without regard to what the prevailing sentiment of the party in the East may be. It is not the public sentiment in New York which is to be represented by the convention at Sacramento, but that of California Republicans. To misrepresent this sentiment merely for the aske of policy or expediency would be un exhipolicy or expediency would be an exhi-bition of political duplicity unworthy of the party and indefensible from any standpoint.

If the Republicans of the West and South honestly voice the sentiment of the party in those states the influence wie party in those states the influence wielded in the national convention can-not fail to advance the cause of gilver. The proper course for the Republicans of California to wear that of California is very clear.

Crawford is wanted in Paris, the county seat of Monros, on a charge of party larceny, burglary and jein breaking. It is may also have to answer two charges of areon. There is a strong suspicion that he set two barns on fire. The potty larceny and burglary charges are alleged to have been committed in entering a chicken house and stealing about sixty lowls.

While awaiting the action of the grand jury on a charge of chicken stealing, Crawford broke out of jail. This occurred two years ago, and he has been a figitive from justice ever since. The jail in which Crawford was confined, although it is the caunty's only instition of that charecter, is a very small affair, and not adapted to the safe confinement of dangerous criminals. It was built forty-two years ago, and in on the plan of a cababose in the small towns of this state.

Shorfif Unstattd will both handcull and chackle Crawford on his journey home, as he does not want to take any chances with his man.

The shorfif was seen by a Reron.Lc. Nepoter yesterday and expressed himself as delighted with Frasno and vicinity. "Your hospitable shorfif, Art. Scott, took me on a drive through the vineyards and wineries cast of the sity today," said Mr. Unstattd, "and I saw the grandest country I have over seen. There is no comparison between it and Missouri. If I were not tied up in Missouri if I were not tied up in Missouri if I were not tied up in Missouri would come to Fresno in as short a time set I could make it. Words fail to express my feelings for this country. Your people are different from those in the east. Our people live an easy, matter-of-fact life, entirely different from the east. Our people live an easy, matter-of-fact life, entirely different from the vim and energy of California people. "I tasted some of your wines today. I sampled the port for one. What we call port wine in Missouri is much different from the product of your wineries. Before wage it, I suspose, it undergoes several operations. "Your tripsching system is comething new to me and I am much interested in it. Yes, I have seen the finest country today in the United States, and I am almost glad that Hen Grawford gave muchis chase on hure."

Mr. Unstattd is now serving his fourthy year as sheriff of Monroe country. He is gentleman of very pleasant address. Sheriff Scott will take him for a drive through the colonies south of town today.

Almighty and Only One Bierce.
L. C. D. in Stockton Mall.

I learned that about shaking hands I learned that about shaking hands from Ambrose Blerce. I had never thought what a beautiful thing it is for the great and good to allow ordinary individuals to take their hands until The Great Man said if Huntington would prove that the Examiner was on the Southern Pacific's pay roll he (Bierce) would retire from the paper and shake hands with Huntington—"a thing," he says, "which I refused to do on several occasions when I met him in Washing ton," So, now! I s'pose that really [as, A. A. Smith last week was a success in every particular. ton." So, naw! I s'pose that really and truly 'lm not so great as Bisrce, but I'm awfully good, and maybe that counis. And then, if I'll only suggest, as the psychologists say, to my subjective minor that A sax a creat, with I'll for any great at there, I'll have it! Striously, though, isn't the quadruple astract of content, carried to the topmost round of the fadder, flavoring the world quoted above? Why, the man's power guested above? Why, the man's power to the property of the string of the source of the string of the source of the string of the source for self-appreciation amounts to genius!
It makes him great! He is great! Almighty and Only Due Bierce, I take of my hat to you; you are acork—, that is, er—yes, you are pretty tolerably great.

"A RILK WHITE FLAG."

A Speciacular Farce-Comedy at the

A Spectacular Farce-Councy at the Barton Tonight.

"A Milk White Flag," which will be seen at the Barton Opera House this evening, Is the most pretentious of all the Hoyt pieces. It is a big production, lawing a cast of fifty people, and is spectacular in its make-up. The play being of a military nature, gives opportunity for handsome dressing. The costumes of the clicers of the Ransome Guards, the dressing of the vixanderes, the outfit of the ladies' drum corps and the gaudy appearance of the band

Guarda, the dressing of the vivanderes, the outfit of the ladies drum corps and the early sppearance of the band would give ecope for effect. The seenic effects, which represent the interior of the armory of the guarda, is said to be a very fine specimen of the scenic painter's art.

New, bright music, the latest songs and clever specialties will be seen in the play, and, coming as it does with the firmly established trademark of Hoyt, is a guarantee of some fun.

The story of "A Milk White Flag" is summed up in this: The Ransome Guarda, a military organization, ready for war in time of peace, forms a picturesque background against which the story is clearly sketched. A colonel, a major, a judge advocate, a curreon, a bandmaster, and one private go to make up the goards. The Colonel is a gentleman of wealth and listure, whose military tendencies are the result of a personal likenest to Napoleon I. The Major is a prominent life insurance man who loves the service because he looks well in uniform, and the Judge Advocate, the Surgeon and the Bandmaster are respectively and appropriately the leading lawyer, physician and unsite teacher of the town. The private has to be hired, as no one can be induced to act in such an obscure postellon without companion.

The Judge Advocate, in his official cantal and band advocate, in his official cantal and and a promestion.

Sam Good and John Bryan lave opened their new "White Front" store, and the same building of Mr. Missampbell is nearing completion. One half of it will be fitted up as a barber shop for the use of Mr. Cale. Our intelling news dealer "Scotty" Hill will occupy the other side. He intends to put in a free public reading room, a feature whole in the strain of the first opportunity to have his jaw repaired, which he injured by falling at a fire in Freeno last summer. Mr. O. W. Batch is in town, and has got out a particularly nice specimen of illustrated advertising. It is a moneter photo of the national capital, in handsome frame, with the background illed in with cards of local merchants arranged in artistic fashion. Specimens of these pictures may be seen at the Hughes, Grand Central and Pleasanton hotels and the Southern Pacific depot, P. S.—Desiring that the letter press should he as artistic as the rest of it, Mr. Batch of course had the work done at the Regumens office. It speaks for itself. If any office in the state can beat it, we should like to see it.

last week was a success in every particular, An elegant hunch was served and the host of ladies present did ample justice thereto, and all in all, those present had a mostydelightful time.

The storm last Thursday loft its autograph plainly written, and not it a desirable manner either. The large war house used for storing grain collapsed, and presents a doleful sight. A borse was blown over as its Trilbys seemed inadequate of holding it on terra firma. Thomas Clark, of the firm of J. P. Clark & Bro., has given the town a surprise by purchasing S. M. Smoots' residence. As the house is large and commodious and Tommy is a small bachelor, the combination doesn't seem quite the proper thing. Girls, his P. O. box is No. 100, Kingsburg.

The firm of Einstein & Co. has opened a millinery department in the general merchandnes stove. The latice are now heard to bewail their lot no more.
